THE BALL STILL ROLLING! RMODE ISLAND CREUT !!!

We have the oleasure to announce to our readers that the tories of the State of Rhode Island took their turn to be defeated on Wed nesday last. Here is a Whig gain of 1389 votes in the fittle State of Re laland which throws only about 7000 votes? WHIG CAUSE TRIUMPHANI

CLORIOUS RESULT Line RHODE ISLAND ELECTION Once more vic-Another contest is over, - Another batth has been won. The same hanver which led us on to victory in August, now floats in triumph over another well t ught held. The strong, for Tellenglinst and Counston, have now mustered in equal force and continded with regual success, for the same great principles. The good work which was begun at that time is now completed, the last vestige of Locafocusm has been swept away, and with joy, not less than we felt in announcing the victory of last summer, we are able to sav that the entire Whise Ticket has been elected by a triumphant!

This result has been effected after one of the this State, and one which has brought into the parties. The Loco-Focos had calculated less pon their own strength than upon our supposed weakness. They imagined that there were vent us from casting a full party vote. Had it not been for this, they would not have nomina ted a ticket. The result has shown the failacy of their culculations. May it ever prove thus when they rely for success upon the suprneness of the Whigs of RHODE ISLAND

Our friends have come out well, the day was devoted to the great purpose before them that of enseming sound Whig principles. Business other than that which concerned the election, things was money, the Huppleset alous big leger, the Mechanic laid aside his tools, the F rmer bus implements of husbandry, all knew and left how a sich was at stake, and the glory us result has well rewarded them for their zeal and activity.

the proceedings in the House of Representatives on the 17th inst gave evidence of the little reliance which is to be placed upon the recent avoable of the variou, organs of the administration of a determination on the part of the Foregreent to abandon its anti-Bank policy "The Resolution introduced awhile since by Mr. Hangn, an arknowledged leader of the Van Buren party, declaring at to be the duty of the General Covernment to "aid the Banks in regulating public confidence, and to sustain them in their laudable efforts to futfil their obligs. tions, to relieve the wants of the community. and to realons to the community a sound circu lating medium,' was hailed by the Loco Focos as evidence of the frendly feeling of the Gov crephages toward the oneed matriations of the country, and a willingstus to abandon the subto -gry scheme, upon which the people had put their seal of reprobation But a week elap Byen hen lo! TO THE YOUNG MEN OF PENOBSCO!

You have a secred duty to perform at the coning Elections, and permit one who feels most you to use your utmost endeavors to acquit vourselves honorably in the coming campaign. Then our country was our own just pride and whitened every sea, the winds of heaven wafted earth. Our cities were crowded with the enterspindle and the frammer were heard in our vilevery countenance How is it now! Alas how changed Our ships lay rottening at our whates, or are wending their way upon the ocean, with half a freight. The hum of business has ceased, the spingle is silenced, the tools of the mechanic lie rusting in his sliop, and the day labor. critetires to his couch at night with a desponding heart, not knowing how he shall obtain food has his wife and children turche motion? I he merchant wears out a weary day at his desk and returns at night with a lainting heart to a sleepless bed. The manufactures of the country are cripilled, if not forever ruined. Men freemen who then came out four thousand with abundant means are unable to meet their honest engagements. Want stares us in the tace at every corner. Instead of the suite of contentment, the look of anxiety jests upon ev ery countenauce, and if we look forward for re hef, we look as it were into unter durkness, and turn back sick at heart, and ready to give our selves up to despair. This is a sorry picture. but it is true. If we turn to our Government severest political contests that ever necurred in for relief, how are we meta. With a mockery which only makes our anguish keener. We field the entire strength and energies of both are assured that government will do nothing but follow on in the same course which they Thave nursued for years past. In a course of exdistinuous in the White ranks, which would pre- | periments which its own friends admit, has not yet produced the results which they anticipated, and that they fear it never will.

Have we any thing to hope from them? believe every candid man will answer, no Have we not much to fear " If the same means produce the same results which they have done, we have every thing to fear. I will not question the motives of the party in bower, but i does seem that eight years is long enough to produce some of the good results which were promised from their measures. It does seem that there have been failures enough to say the least, to make every man doubt the soundness of their policy You will a-k, what shall we do? I auswer. feet us go back and travel in the same goth in which we walked in the days of our prosperity. Let us try no more experiments. les of all marters, and of all professions, as eallings would how with joy, even the apprar ance of prosperity. Then I say, let us ab indun-EfGH1' members of the House, to IHIRIY those men who are pledged to, and pers st in cirrying out those measures, which, to say the least, have produced no beneficial results.

This is so time to be trainelled by the discr pline of party, or the personal or sectional preferences you may have for individuals. The two great politeral parties of the day are divided upon the question of our national cuttency. and it is upon the result of this controversy that the life or dealb of the bosiness of the country depends. One party must be wrong upon this question, and it is the sclema and botimaen duly of every fire voter, so to inform himself as to be enoughly action that he acts upon the right erce of this guestion at the polls. The question is at too week importance, the result is of the great moment, to be acted upon at the beck and 12th, as will be seen by the following bidding of a garty or of garty leaders. The Merchant, the Manufacturer, the Mechanic, the Day Latiner, the Widow and the Orphan, de hold it? No. You cannot You are soon to be called upon to choose, in addition to State officers, a representative to Congress, and it is in the choice of that man, that you are to vote, one way or the other, upon this most entous question Ponder well the subject throw aside all party prejudices, and I have noticar for the result, for I trust in the honesty of the people, when left free to the exercise of their opinions Then I say again, ake up your mands, must fully, to the contest, some to the rescue, and victory shall be years. No man, having the quietly down, and tractio his acceptant to do the that place, on the parming of the 12th mer at work, without being arminally angliqued. NEW AND VALUABLE SCHOOL

DOOK! THE attention of School Committees, Teachers and Parents, is invited to the examination of the "Juvenile Reauxu," a selection of easy Reading Lessons, by a Teacher, a new edition of which, revised and corrected, we have just published. It is believed that the book is one which has been very much wanted in our common schools, and indeed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers. The compiler is a gentleman known abonies, and long experience in his pro-ssion. The pieces in this book, are chiefly setected from popular works designed for youth, and in those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a-very low price and has been adopted in a great many Schools with decided approbation, and having been stereotypest, is tree front the danger of having any alterations made in it, which is the greatest trouble with all school books.

Those connected with schools, or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it. SMITH & FENNO, 17 West Market Square.
